

Further Advances with Reliance Bank

About Us

Reliance Bank was established in 1890 by William Booth the founder of the Salvation Army. Reliance Bank has been providing friendly, efficient banking services for over 129 years. We offer ethical banking services to all our personal customers, businesses and charities. We are proud to support the work of The Salvation Army International which has an extensive social programme in over 100 countries worldwide, providing homeless centres, hospitals, schools, homes for children and the elderly, health and educational services.

From 26 April 2014, The Financial Conduct Authority has established new rules for lenders and advisers in the UK. Reliance Bank Limited is a responsible lender, and will only sanction lending that is fit for purpose and has been assessed as being affordable for the borrower.

Execution Only

Reliance Bank is a responsible lender and abides by these new rules and regulations, offering an Execution-only mortgage service. This means that we cannot provide any advice with our mortgages. ### 5 steps to Further Advance with Reliance Bank mortgage . . .

1. How much can I borrow? – To find out how much we would consider lending, simply complete our mortgage application form and return it to us.

2. Your Agreement in Principle – Once we have completed all the relevant checks, we will provide you with an Illustration, detailing the costs of the mortgage product you have chosen, together with a letter, informing you, in principle, how much we could lend you. Agreement in principle will be subject to:

- Assessment of the affordability
- A satisfactory valuation or assessment of the suitability of the property to be mortgaged
- The information you have supplied to us being correct.

3. Arranging a valuation – We require a standard mortgage valuation, and we will arrange this once we have received your acceptance to proceed with your mortgage application.

Reliance Bank Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority.

Reliance Bank Limited, Faith House, 23 – 24 Lovat Lane, London EC3R 8EB. Telephone: 0207 398 5400.

4. Your Mortgage Offer – Once a satisfactory valuation is returned, we will then provide you with a formal Further Advance Mortgage Offer, outlining the costs of your chosen mortgage product. If you wish to accept this we will require you to sign one copy and return this to us within one month.

5. All done! – Your Further Advance has been completed and we will write out to you to confirm your first mortgage payment and your ongoing monthly payments with your new Reliance Bank mortgage.

YOUR HOME IS AT RISK IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP PAYMENTS ON A MORTGAGE OR OTHER LOAN SECURED ON IT.

General Data protection Regulation

We will process your personal information in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations and it will be treated as private and confidential now and in the future. The only exceptions to this will be when the law requires us to disclose information, with your consent or where disclosure is necessary. To fulfil our regulatory obligations your identification documents will be copied and saved securely on the Bank system whilst you remain a customer with us. Should you cease to be a customer of the Bank, this data will be securely archived at the time and destroyed 6 years from the date of closure.

Where copies of your identification documents have been supplied to us, but the account application does not result in the account being opened, this data will be securely destroyed after 3 months.

Data Protection Regulations

Please note that for any mortgage application, we will complete a credit search and will only lend to those with a clear credit history. Your identification documents will be copied and saved securely on the Bank's systems whilst you remain a customer with us. Should you cease to be a customer of the Bank, this data will be securely archived at the time and will be destroyed six years from the date of closing your account(s).
